

NOTICE TO THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF TULIKIVI CORPORATION 2022

Notice is given to the shareholders of Tulikivi Corporation to the Annual General Meeting to be held on 27 April 2022 starting at 12:00 p.m. at the premises of Borenus Attorneys Ltd., Eteläesplanadi 2, 00130 Helsinki.

The Board of Directors of the Company has resolved upon an exceptional General Meeting procedure pursuant to a so called temporary act No 375/2021. In order to limit the spread of COVID-19 pandemic, the General Meeting is held without the presence of the shareholders or their representatives at the meeting place. This is necessary so that the General Meeting can be held in a predictable manner considering the health and safety of the shareholders, personnel of the Company and other stakeholders.

The shareholders can participate in the meeting and exercise their rights only by voting in advance by using the proxy representative and by presenting their counterproposals and questions in advance in accordance with this invitation and other instructions given by the Company. The instructions for shareholders can be found in Section C "Instructions for persons participating in the meeting" of this invitation. It is not possible to participate in the meeting in person at the meeting place.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Managing Director will participate in the General Meeting. The other management of the Company will not participate in the meeting.

A. Matters on the agenda of the general meeting

The following matters will be considered at the Annual General Meeting:

1. Opening of the meeting

2. Calling the meeting to order

Attorney-at-law Christian Fogelholm acts as Chairman. In case Christian Fogelholm is, due to a weighty reason, prevented from acting as Chairman, the Board of Directors shall designate as Chairman a person it considers the most appropriate. The Chairman may designate a Secretary for the Meeting.

3. Election of persons to scrutinise the minutes and to supervise the counting of votes

Lawyer Akseli Uotila acts as person to scrutinise the minutes and to supervise the counting of votes. In case Akseli Uotila is, due to a weighty reason, prevented from acting as person to scrutinise the minutes and to supervise the counting of votes, the Board of Directors shall designate as person to scrutinise the minutes and to supervise the counting of votes a person it considers the most appropriate.

4. Recording the legality of the meeting

5. Recording the attendance at the meeting and adoption of the list of votes

The shareholders who have voted in advance within the time limit of early voting and who are, pursuant to Chapter 5, Sections 6 and 6 a of the Limited Liability Companies Act, entitled to participate in the meeting, are regarded as shareholders participating in the meeting. Since it is possible to participate in the General Meeting only by voting in advance, the financial statements of 2021, including the profit and loss statement, balance and cash flow statement along with their appendices as well as consolidated financial statements and the report of the Board of Directors, and the auditor's report, shall be deemed to have been presented to the General Meeting.

7. Adoption of the Financial Statements, including the adoption of the Consolidated Financial Statements

8. Use of the profit shown on the balance sheet and resolution on the payment of dividend

The parent company does not have any distributable assets. The Board of Directors proposes to the General Meeting that dividends will not be distributed for the year 2021.

9. Resolution on the discharge of the members of the Board of Directors and the Managing Director from liability

10. Handling of the remuneration report for governing bodies

The remuneration report will be published on 31 March 2022 and will be available as from the publication on the Company's webpage www.tulikivi.fi.

Since it is possible to participate in the General Meeting only by voting in advance, the remuneration report for the year 2021 shall be deemed to have been presented to the General Meeting.

The Board of Directors propose, that the General Meeting approves the remuneration report. The resolution is advisory.

11. Resolution on the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors

The Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors proposes to the General Meeting that the annual remuneration of each member of the Board of Directors is EUR 20,000. 60% of the annual remuneration shall be paid in cash and 40% in the form of Series A shares in Tulikivi Corporation so that the shares are purchased on the stock exchange by 31 December 2022 for EUR 8,000. The purchase of shares shall take place on the basis of the General Meeting's resolution and instructions. Unless the Board of Directors grants express permission in advance on a case-by-case basis, the members of the Board of Directors are not allowed to transfer any shares received in this manner until their membership in the Board of Directors has ended. Alternatively, the annual remuneration can be paid in cash in full. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall, in addition to this, be paid a monthly remuneration of EUR 4,500 for this work. Those members of the Board of Directors who perform non-Board of Directors assignments for the company shall be paid a fee on the basis of time rates and invoices approved by the Board of Directors. The Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors proposes to the General Meeting that the following current members shall be elected as the members of the Board of Directors: Jaakko Aspara, Liudmila Niemi, Tarmo Tuominen, Jyrki Tähtinen and Heikki Vauhkonen. Furthermore, the Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors proposes that Niko Haavisto shall be elected as a new member to the Board of Directors.

All proposed candidates have given their consent to the election.

14. Resolution on the remuneration of the auditor

The Board of Directors proposes to the General Meeting that the fees of the auditor shall be paid according to approved invoices.

15. Election of auditor

The Board of Directors proposes to the General Meeting that authorised public accountants KPMG Oy Ab will be elected as the auditor, with Ms Heli Tuuri, Authorised Public Accountant, acting as the auditor in charge.

16. Authorising the Board of Directors to decide on the issuance of shares and issuance of rights of option and other special rights entitling to shares

The Board of Directors proposes to the General Meeting that the General Meeting authorises the Board of Directors to decide on the issue of new shares or the company's own shares in the possession of the company. The new shares and the company's own shares in possession of the company could be issued either against payment or without payment to the company's shareholders in accordance with their proportional ownership of the company's shares or through a directed issue by deviating from the shareholders' pre-emptive subscription right provided that there is a weighty financial reason for the deviation from the company's point of view. A directed share issue could only be made without payment if there is an especially weighty financial reason for it from the point of view of the company and all its shareholders.

In addition, the authorisation would include a right to issue shares without payment to the company itself, provided that the number of shares issued to the company would not exceed one tenth (1/10) of all shares in the company. When calculating this number, the number of shares held by the company as well as those held by its subsidiaries must be taken into account as set out in Chapter 15, section 11(1) of the Companies Act.

The authorisation would also include the right to issue special rights, as defined in Chapter 10, section 1 of the Companies Act, which entitle to subscribe for new shares in the company or the company's own shares in the possession of the company against payment. The payment may be made either in cash or by setting off the subscriber's receivables against the company as payment for the share subscription.

The Board of Directors may use the authorisation for the purpose of making fee / salary payments in the form of shares.

The Board of Directors is entitled to decide on other issues related to the share issues.

No more than approximately 30% of the number of Series A shares on the date of this notice, i.e. 15,656,622 Series A shares in the aggregate, and no more than 30% of the number of Series K shares on the date of this notice, i.e. 2,304,750 Series K shares in the aggregate, i.e. no more than approximately 30% of the number of shares on the date of this notice, i.e. 17,961,372 shares in the aggregate, may be issued on the basis of this authorisation, regardless of whether such shares are new shares or the company's own shares in the company's possession.

The authorisation to issue shares is in force until the Annual General Meeting to be held in 2023 but until 30 June 2023 at the latest.

17. Closing of the Meeting

B. Documents of the General Meeting

The above-mentioned proposals of the Board of Directors as well as this notice are available on Tulikivi Corporation's website at http://www.tulikivi.com/en/tulikivi/General_meetings. The annual report of Tulikivi Corporation, including the company's annual accounts, the report of the Board of Directors, and the auditor's report as well as the Remuneration Policy and the Corporate Governance Statement will be available on the above-mentioned website on 31 March 2022.
