16. Board of Directors' proposal for amending the Articles of Association

- The Board of Directors proposes to the Annual General Meeting that a resolution be passed by the meeting to amend the Articles of Association by adding a new article 3a after article 3, to read as follows:

3a §

Conversion clause

Provided that the number of shareholders owning series K shares is less than 150, each series K share may be converted to a series A share if so requested by the shareholder.

A written request addressed to the company's Board of Directors concerning conversion must state the number of shares to be converted and the book entry account in which the book entry securities corresponding to the shares are registered. The company may ask that for the duration of the conversion procedure an entry be made in the shareholder's book entry account restricting the owner's disposal right. Within three months of receiving the request, the company's Board of Directors or a party designated by it must deal with the conversion requests presented and must report them for registration in the Trade Register.

A request to convert shares can be cancelled up to the point when notification of the conversion is made in the Trade Register. Following a cancellation, the company will ask for the removal of any entry made in the shareholder's book entry account restricting the disposal right.

The conversion of series K to series A shares occurs upon completion of the Trade Register entry. Registration of the conversion is notified to the party that submitted the conversion request and to the book entry registrar.

The company's Board of Directors will, if necessary, give more detailed instructions on carrying out the conversion.

- The Board of Directors proposes to the Annual General Meeting that a resolution be passed by the meeting to amend article 8 of the Articles of Association, to read as follows:

Notice of meeting

The notice of meeting shall be delivered by the Board of Directors by publishing the notice as a stock exchange release and on the company's website no earlier than three months and no later than three weeks before the General Meeting, and in any event no later than nine days before the General Meeting record date referred to in section 2(2), chapter 4 of the Limited Liability Companies Act.

For shareholders to be able to participate in a General Meeting, they must submit notification of this intention to the place mentioned in the notice of meeting no later than ten days prior to the meeting.

17. Authorizing the Board of Directors to decide on the repurchase of the company's own shares

- The Board of Directors proposes to the Annual General Meeting that the Annual General Meeting would resolve to authorise the Board of Directors to decide on the repurchase of the company's own shares under the following terms:

a) The company's shares are to be acquired in order to develop the company's capital structure and to be used as consideration in acquisitions or other structural arrangements in a manner and with a scope determined by the Board of Directors. In addition, the shares may be acquired for the use in share-based incentive arrangements, for payment of share-based remuneration or otherwise to be transferred or cancelled.

b) A maximum number of 2 760 397 of the A-series shares and 954 000 of the K-series shares of the company may be repurchased, taking into account that the company may not hold more than 10 per cent of all shares.

c) Shares will be acquired in the following manner:

(i) The company's A-series shares will be acquired through public trading at the NASDAQ OMX Helsinki Oy as decided by the Board of Directors and by deviating from the proportion in which the company's shareholders own shares in the company, at the price set at the NASDAQ OMX Helsinki Oy and in accordance with its rules;

(ii) The company's K-series shares will be acquired in proportion to shares owned by the shareholders by making an offer to the owners of the K-series shares with the following terms: the price paid for the K-series shares corresponds to the weighted average price paid in the executed transactions in the public trading of the A-series shares at the NASDAQ OMX Helsinki Oy during the two week's period preceding the signing date of the offer. In case the company has not managed to acquire the number of K-series shares set out in the resolution by the General Meeting, the Board of Directors may acquire the remaining number from those owners of K-series shares willing to sell more than their proportional share of the shares to be acquired. In case more shares are offered for sale than the number to be purchased, the Board of Directors will decide, having regard to the ownership share of the sellers and the number of shares offered for sale, how the number of shares to be purchased is to be allocated among the shareholders offering shares for repurchase.

d) The repurchase of the shares will be carried out with funds available for distribution of profits and the acquisition will reduce the equity available for distribution

e) The authorisation to repurchase shares is in force until the Annual General Meeting to be held in 2014, however, not for a longer period than 18 months as of the resolution by the General Meeting.

f) All other issues related to the repurchase of shares are decided by the Board of Directors of the Company.

18. Authorizing the Board of Directors to decide on the issuance of shares and the company's own shares in possession of the company and the right to issue special rights which give entitlement to shares as defined in Chapter 10 Section 1 of the Companies Act.

The Board of Directors proposes to the Annual General Meeting that the Annual General Meeting would resolve to authorise the Board of Directors to decide on the issue of new shares or the company's own shares in the possession of the company. The new shares and the company's own shares in possession of the company may be issued against payment or free of charge to all shareholders in accordance with their proportional ownership of the company's shares or through a directed issue by deviating from the shareholders' pre-emptive subscription right provided there is a weighty financial reason from the company's point of view for the deviation. A directed share issue may only be free of charge if there is a particularly weighty financial reason for it from the point of view of the company and all its shareholders.

In addition, the authorisation would include a right to issue cost-free shares to the company, provided that the number of shares issued to the company would not exceed one tenth (1/10) of all shares of the company. When calculating this number, the number of shares held by the company as well as those held by its subsidiaries must be taken into account as set out in Chapter 15, Section 11, and subsection 1 of the Companies Act.

The authorisation would also include the right to issue special rights, as defined in Chapter 10, Section 1 of the Companies Act, which entitle to subscribe for new shares or shares in the possession of the company against payment. The payment may be made in cash or by setting off the subscriber's receivable against the company as payment for the share subscription.

The Board of Directors may use the authorization for the purpose of making fee/salary payments in the form of shares.

The Board of Directors is entitled to decide on other issues related to the share issuances.

No more than 5 520 794 A-series shares in the aggregate and no more than 1908 000 K-series shares in the aggregate (i.e. no more than a 7 428 794 shares in the aggregate) may be issued (including shares issued on the basis of special rights) on the basis of this authorisation, regardless of whether such shares are new or in the company's possession.

The authorisation to issue shares is in force until the Annual General Meeting to be held in 2014 however, until 30 June 2014 at the latest.

19. Closing of the meeting
